JUNE GUEST ARTIST

Jan Schafir, Pen & Ink Watercolor Wash

June 6, 1:00 p.m.

Jan Schafir

"Jade Fon was my Watercolor teacher for many years before I started teaching myself.

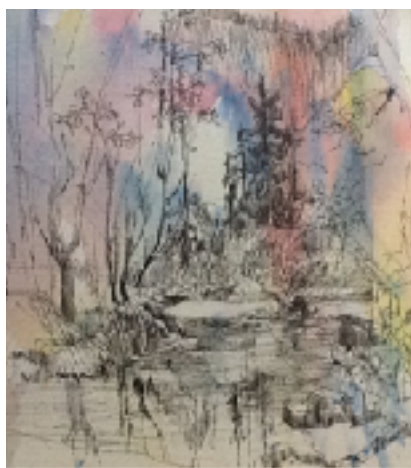

One of the techniques Jade recommended that I do was to improve my drawing skills! I listened to him and took many classes in drawing! I fell in love with pen and ink, and incorporated it into my watercolor, particularly abstract watercolor washes! To this day, that is one of my favorite pastimes!

Many days I leave home with a sketchbook partially full of watercolor washes. When I reach my location I already have these prepared pages ready to sketch. The results are delightful!"

On Wednesday afternoon, June 6 from 1-3, I will facilitate FAA artists who want to participate in a paint/sketch session along with instructions in how to make these small works of art at the gallery. I will provide my favorite pens for sale as well as some photos to sketch! Please bring along your favorite sketch pad and watercolors.

From the FAA President's and Gallery Director's Palette

Spring is here in Niles with the beautiful mini-show of flower paintings in the gallery by the Tuesday Painters. I want to send a sincere "thank you!" to all the Tuesday Painters who helped put up their show. If you haven't seen it, please stop in the gallery.

I need to make everyone aware that FAA needs more people to be involved in the association. Denny and I are grateful for the small core of members who regularly help with events, quarterly shows, mini-shows, and other things happening in the gallery. But this is a rather small group, and we need new people to step up, with their new ideas and energy, to help run this art association. We're not looking for someone to take on any huge task. And as I've said before, just about every job in this organization can be shared with someone else; or even shared with 3 or 4 people. In an organization of about 120 members, there are only about 25 active members, and this includes all those who show their art in the quarterly shows.

In the past, we had the gallery open six days a week. Now we have the gallery open only three full days and two partial days. It is only because of the generous help from Tuesday Painters and Fiber Arts that the gallery is open on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Otherwise it would be Friday through Sunday. Period.

We would like to have some workshops and maybe an event in the summer, to get more people to learn about the beautiful FAA gallery and to draw more people into the gallery to help with sales. We have so many beautiful art pieces for sale in all price ranges and we need more people to learn what the gallery has to offer.

So, please, call or email me to ask what you might do. If you just contact me to talk about some areas where you might help, I promise that I won't try to sign you up for a bunch of things. I would just like to know that there are other members who are interested in helping this unique art association that we have here in Niles. And maybe something will sound good and you would like to help run YOUR art association.

The next general meeting is June 6th at 1:00. Jan Schafir will demo pen & ink and watercolor wash. Here are some of the future meetings:

July 11, 5:00 pm - Member and family potluck

August 1, 7:00 pm - Veronica Shimanovskaye will talk about how FAA can partner with the Niles Silent Film Museum to put on a Video Art Festival and art show

Phone: 408-522-2700

Workshop information:

Experimental Painting on Creative Surfaces:

Whether you are an experienced artist or a beginner, this hands-on workshop will give you the opportunity to explore a variety of materials that could be used as alternative approaches to your painting. Using acrylic gels, mediums and pastes, mixed with more mundane materials like tissue papers, blotters, sand and even eggshells will have you discovering, experimenting, and teaching you to embrace the unexpected in your work.

We will work in a friendly, relaxed and supportive atmosphere, with short demonstrations given throughout the class.

Returning and advanced level students are most welcome and are encouraged to start a new, fun painting or, if they so wish, to continue their work on an ongoing project during the class.

All levels are welcome.

Fee: $65; a $5 materials fee is payable to instructor in class, only if the student uses instructor's supplies.

Stay at the Murphys Suites for 3 nights.

Check in Sunday, June 17 - 3 pm

Any day - paint in the hotel meeting room open to us 24/7

Monday, June 18, we'll caravan to Sourgrass Camp on Boards Crossing Road and paint the Stanislaus River. At 5pm gather in the hotel meeting room to look at our paintings and decide where to go to dinner.

Tuesday, June 19, same as above. Bring your paintings from both days and we will vote for an artist's choice winner who will receive a ribbon and a prize.

Wednesday, June 20, check out 11am

We're gathering information on a place called White Pines Lake in Arnold for possibly painting before check in on Sunday and a winery with gold panning to paint at on Wednesday, before driving home. These two places are tentative plans in the works.

LOCAL ART EXHIBITS

Foothill Gallery, Members Show, through May 27.

Hayward Senior Center, Stan Stadelman paintings, May 9-July 11.

John O'Lague Galleria, "Art is Education," through May 25. Students of Hayward Unified School District.

Harrington Gallery, Pleasanton, 8th Annual "Fresh Works" open show, through June 2.

Photocentral, "2018 Spring Exhibition by Friends, Patrons and Students," through June 11.

Sun Gallery, "Climate Change, an Unfolding Emergency," through June 2.

As many of you know, the Sun Gallery has a Facebook page where we post upcoming exhibits, events, artists work plus cool art-related activities happening in our community. If you haven't already, please like us on Facebook at: <https://www.facebook.com/thesungallery/>

And drum roll.....we are so excited....we have now been approved to take donations through Facebook!

Because we are a 501c3 non-profit organization, we were able to access this awesome tool to make it easier for our community to help support us. Our donation button is located on our Facebook cover page. Your payment information is also secure and private.

As it goes with many non-profits, getting funding and donations is the key to us being able to exist. Challenges always exist as prices rise and families struggle to make ends meet. We have managed to survive for 43 years, but every year always brings us new financial challenges. That's why we depend on the support of our community to keep our doors open and provide the services we do.

Admission to the Gallery is always free plus we have Free Saturday Art Classes for Families on the 2nd and 4th Saturday of every month from 11-1. We also offer families very affordable Summer Art Camps and other cool family events during the year like Art Birthday Parties, workshops and interactive art exploration times during our exhibits. During the school year we host over 100 field trips for local classes who come here to enjoy our 2 hour docent led tours and art projects. New and emerging artists get the opportunity to exhibit their art at the Sun Gallery, plus we have many established artists who continue to exhibit with us throughout the year.

All donations we receive on Facebook during the month of May go towards our art scholarship fund - which will send up to 6 (or more) children to Summer Art Camp this summer. Kids who attend camp get the chance to experience a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to meet and learn from local illustrators, teachers, builders and creators. Each and every week we offer a different theme.

There are also many other ways you can support us by volunteering, donating, sharing our Facebook page and website – or even interning at the gallery. All these things are what make the Sun a thriving hub for the arts, culture and humanities in the East Bay.

We want to thank you again for your support of the Sun Gallery! See you on Facebook!
